SD Guard volunteers organizing community food drive

RAPID CITY, S.D. – Volunteer members of the South Dakota National Guard are organizing a food drive for the fourth consecutive year to benefit people in the communities in which they serve.

Members of the public who would like to donate items are encouraged to bring non-perishable food items to any Army National Guard armory in South Dakota or to the Air National Guard base in Sioux Falls from now until June 10.

Volunteers will deliver food to various social service organizations and food banks in their respective local communities.

The all-volunteer effort to collect and donate food, while not an official function of the National Guard, is a welcome adjunct activity showcasing volunteers' commitment to serve some of South Dakota's most needy people.

See below for a complete list of armory locations to donate non-perishable food items. For more information, please contact the local National Guard unit in your community or contact Col. Lynn Wilson at (605) 737-6009.
