SEXUAL ASSAULT PREVENTION

SEXUAL ASSAULT POLICY

- Sexual Assault (SA) is a criminal offense that has no place in the military.
- SA is punishable under the UCMJ and other federal and local civilian laws.
- SA degrades mission readiness and unit cohesion, devastates trust within the unit and organization and impacts combat effectiveness.
- Don't remain silent; preventing sexual assault is everyone's duty.

SEXUAL ASSAULT RESOURCES

Sexual Assault Response Coordinator (SARC)

The SARC assists commanders on the prevention and training requirements of the program and provides services to survivors.

Unit Victim Advocate (UVA)

An advocate can provide non-clinical crisis intervention, referrals, information and ongoing support to survivors.

COMMAND THEMES & MESSAGES

TAG TOP-LINE MESSAGES

- The SDNG's foremost responsibility is to deliver ready, trained and equipped forces to meet the operational demands put before it and possess the capabilities to be prepared to fight across multiple domains.
- In times of war, the SDNG provides forces that fight and win as part of the Joint Force. In times of state emergencies or national crises, SDNG forces provide response and recovery assistance to federal, state and local governments at home and abroad.
- The National Guard provides trained and ready forces as the primary combat reserve of the Army and the Air Force.
- The SDNG is dedicated to leveraging the strength of its diverse force and understands that diversity makes our Army and Air Force stronger.
- Since 9/11, the SDNG has deployed more than 8,000 Soldiers and Airmen to locations throughout Europe, Iraq, Afghanistan and other countries across the Middle East.
- Located in 22 communities across the state, we provide overwhelming capability and capacity to the governor before and after disasters strike.
- Civil authorities understand the unique capabilities of the SDNG when local and state assets are overwhelmed in a catastrophic incident or natural disaster; interagency training events provide opportunities to improve these relationships.
- Strengthening forces by embracing local, state, federal and global partnerships. Our State Partnership Program builds relationships, assures partners and deters foes.
